

CHAPTER THREE

ARTICLE I – Crimes Against The Person

3.1.1 Assault -- No person shall, within the Town, shoot, stab, shoot at, assault, beat or strike another person with intent to injure him, or to put him in fear, or cause him to desist from doing whatever he might lawfully do, or induce or compel him to do that which he might lawfully refuse to do, or brandish any dangerous weapon at another in a menacing manner with like intent, or draw, otherwise than in self-defense, in a threatening or angry manner, a loaded pistol or bowie knife with like intent, or, under like circumstances, produce or be armed with any dangerous weapon, implement, or missile.

3.1.2 Assaulting or Insulting Females – No person shall assault, frighten, speak rudely or indecently to, make any immodest, obscene, or insulting gesture, or in any way insult or molest any female.

3.1.3 Adultery and Fornication – It shall be unlawful for any person to commit adultery or fornication within the Town. In prosecutions for adultery and fornication, the person's name in the complaint shall be presumed to be unmarried persons in the absence of proof to the contrary.
