

CHAPTER 23

Amendment

23.1.3 Purpose

No person shall conduct within the town any business, profession, calling or vocation for which a town license is required. By this article or elsewhere on these codified ordinances or other ordinances without obtaining from the town, such town license as may be required. Therefore, each license must be obtained on or before at time of rental of or purchase of the dwelling or property being used for such business, profession, calling or vocation.

To which such license relates: and each person so licensed by the town shall pay such license tax or fee as may be imposed. Therefore by the town and shall maintain such license in a currently valid status at all times.

When conducting the business, profession, calling or vocation to which such license states.

First Reading: 12/19/22

Second Reading: 1/5/23

Mayor, Donald Fannin

Recorder, Jay Ward